DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 33-38, drawn to a method of acquisition of content by a network enabled device, classified in class 709, subclass 217.
- II. Claims 28-32, drawn to a system for controlling user access on a user network device to content, classified in class 709, subclass 229.
- III. Claims 39-43, drawn to a system for acquiring user access to content controlled by a server network device, classified in class 709, subclass 225.
- IV. Claims 44-58, drawn to a business method for controlling distribution of content to a network enabled device, classified in class 705, subclass 52.
- V. Claims 1-27, drawn to a method of delivering content to a network enabled device, classified in class 709, subclass 232.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II, III, IV and V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as acquisition of content. Invention II has separate utility such as controlling user access. Invention III has separate utility such as acquiring user access.

Art Unit: 3621

Invention IV has separate utility such as charging a license fee. Invention V has separate utility such as delivering of content. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
